COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Wilderness First Responder course is essential if you work or recreate in the outdoors or in other austere environments where access to medical care is delayed or communication is unreliable. It is the industry standard for professional guides, trip leaders, search and rescue team members, outdoor recreationists, and international travelers. Upon completion, you will be able to conduct a thorough physical exam, obtain a patient history, assess vital signs, provide emergency care in the wilderness, and make crucial evacuation decisions. During this fast-paced, engaging course, you will spend half your time practicing skills and participating in realistic scenarios, including a full-scale night mock rescue.

NOLS Wilderness Medicine's nationally recognized curriculum encompasses a wide range of topics including long-term patient care, wound management, selective spine immobilization, reducing dislocations, litter packaging, and epinephrine administration. Dynamic educators who have practiced medicine in both wilderness and urban environments will teach you skills and protocols to step forward in an emergency, and you will finish the intensive 80-hour course with the tools and confidence to manage patients in the backcountry for multiple days.

Upon successful course completion you will earn the following NOLS Wilderness Medicine certifications: Wilderness First Responder, Adult and Child CPR & Airway Management, and Epinephrine Auto-injector.

CLASS FORMAT AND PERSONAL PREPAREDNESS

Check in is at 7:45 AM on the first day of the course. Course days run from 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM. Two evening sessions will be scheduled. The format for this 80-hour WFR is classroom lectures integrated with practical scenarios, skills practice sessions, case studies, role playing and simulated rescues. Attendance is required for all scheduled classes. Scenarios and practice sessions will take place both inside and outside. The weather in northern Arizona can be unpredictable and varies with the season. Bring outdoor clothing appropriate for lying on the potentially wet, muddy, or frozen ground playing the role of both rescuer and patient. Frequently, stage (moulage) blood and make-up will be used to emphasize the reality of a scenario. Generally, the classroom environment lends itself to a pair of comfy shoes/slippers and a camp-type chair.

COURSE LOCATIONS AND TRAVEL DIRECTIONS

Most courses are held at the Colton Research Center:

Pearson Hall – Building #34
Colton Research Center
3100 North Fort Valley Road
Flagstaff, Arizona

From downtown Flagstaff and the intersection of Route 66 and Humphreys Street, drive north on Humphreys Street. After many blocks, turn left onto Fort Valley Road/US 180 and go approximately 2.1 miles. Turn right onto North Winding Brook Road (marked by a large blue sign to a senior community named 'The Peaks') and go 0.2 miles to the intersection with West Research Center Drive. Turn left and park in one of the parking lots on either side of the road. The class will be held in Pearson Hall, Building #34, just west of the parking lots. A map is available on the FFI website: www.flagstafffieldinstitute.com/resources/course-locations/

The January 2-10 WFR course will be held in the SBS West building on the campus of Northern Arizona University.

LODGING

There is no lodging option available at the course site, but there are many, many lodging options in and around Flagstaff. Flagstaff is completely surrounded by national forest, and camping is available in various campgrounds around town. For more information on campgrounds as well as 'dispersed camping', please visit the Coconino National Forest website:

www.fs.fed.us/r3/coconino/

Many students choose to stay at the Grand Canyon Hostel in downtown Flagstaff. The Grand Canyon Hostel provides great access to the local climbing gym, restaurants, outdoor equipment shops, etc. For more information on the hostel, please visit www.grandcanyonhostel.com. The hostel offers a 'free, hearty breakfast' every day, and you'll receive a 15% discount off the cost of lodging if you mention that you're participating in a WFR course with Pete Walka and the Flagstaff Field Institute.

For other lodging options such as hotels, motels, or B&Bs, please visit the following websites:

Flagstaff Chamber of Commerce: www.flagstaffchamber.com

City of Flagstaff web site: www.flagstaff.az.us

RECREATION

Only 80 miles from the Grand Canyon, Flagstaff has long been recognized for its outstanding recreational opportunities. Rock & Ice, a climbing magazine, named Flagstaff one of the "10 Climbing Towns to Live For", and Flagstaff is surrounded by hundreds of miles of trails for running and mountain biking. The Arizona Nordic Village and Arizona Snowbowl provide cross-country and downhill skiing opportunities during the winter. Flagstaff also boasts a vibrant arts and entertainment scene and lots of great coffee shops. Bring your climbing shoes, hiking boots, running shoes, mountain bike, skis, and snowshoes – the recreational opportunities are amazing!

PLEASE NOTE

*Pets are not allowed at the course site. This includes leashing them outside. Any student bringing a pet to class will be asked to leave class until the pet is safely situated in a kennel or other facility. No exceptions.

*No smoking, alcohol, or illegal drugs allowed in class.

Please don't hesitate to contact me with any questions.
I'm looking forward to having you in the course!
