The WFR Recertification course also includes Adult/child CPR and FBAO. This course is the most popular recertification program in Wilderness Medicine and is ideal for current Wilderness First Responders and Wilderness EMTs. If you hold a valid WFR certification from NOLS Wilderness Medicine, we ask you to bring your certification card so that the instructor can verify your expiration date. You can also let us know when you sign up.

Students holding a current WFR certification from any other organization are REQUIRED to submit a photocopy of their certification card on the first day of the course. You can also email us a copy of your card when you are signing up.

If you hold a current WFR certification from any other wilderness medicine organization with less than a 70 hour certification, you will receive a letter of course completion in lieu of a NOLS Wilderness Medicine WFR certification. This letter of completion may allow you to recertify with your original certifying organization. You must contact that organization prior to your NOLS Wilderness Medicine course to ensure that our course will meet their requirements for recertification.

There is a one-year grace period for recertification of NOLS Wilderness Medicine cards. Keep in mind that your certification is not current during this “re-entry year” and therefore you can not work as a Wilderness First Responder.

You will be required to complete a WRITTEN EXAM at the BEGINNING of the course. Check the following web page for information and resources on how to best prepare for your course.

NOLS WILDERNESS MEDICINE MISSION: The Wilderness Medicine goal is to provide the highest quality education and information for the recognition, treatment, and prevention of wilderness emergencies.

For over a decade, NOLS Wilderness Medicine (<https://www.nols.edu/en/courses/wilderness-medicine/>) has been the most recognized and respected teacher of wilderness medicine, training over 350,000 students around the world. We expect you to be respectful of other participants and our staff – both in the classroom and during our scenarios outside. We expect you to take good care of the equipment. We hope you will ask us if you don't understand. We expect you to have studied before course start as we start the course on Friday morning with the written test.
