Travel, Meals, and Lodging

- Getting to Durango by Air

Regional Airports: Durango- La Plata County Regional Airport: 15 miles | Grand Junction Regional Airport: 173 miles | Telluride Regional Airport (connections to Denver only): 110 miles

International Airports: Albuquerque International Sunport: 217 miles | Denver International Airport: 361 miles | Salt Lake City International Airport: 391 miles

- Getting to Durango by Car: Durango is the perfect destination for a road trip. Since this corner pocket of Colorado is a full day's drive from major cities, it's a bit off the beaten path. On the way, there are tons of attractions from Durango, no matter what direction you are coming from or going to. Here's some information on the drive times to expect.

- Albuquerque: 215 miles south | 3.5-hour drive
- Denver is 337 miles north | 6-hour drive
- Salt Lake City is 339 miles northwest | 6.5 drive

The course will be held at La Plata County Fairgrounds + Event Center
2500 Main Ave
Durango, CO 81301

- Dispersed Camping:

Bay City Campground is about 30 minutes away from the classroom, offers paved sites and RV hookups. Campers can stay for up to 14 days.

There is quite a bit of forest service land around Durango, so other dispersed camping isn't hard to come by, as long as the roads are snow-free and accessible.

- Pay Camping: There are several pay camping options in, and just outside of Durango.

Reservations required.
