

Student Logistics

Wilderness First Aid (WFA)

Sponsored by Treeline Perspectives & NOLS Wilderness Medicine

Dates: May 2-3, 2025

Cost: $300

Location: 309 Lewis St, Pagosa Springs, CO 81147

Travel, Meals, and Lodging

Meals and Lodging

Meals and lodging are available within easy walking or driving distance of the course site. Developed and undeveloped campsites are available in the San Juan National Forest. The Nightingale Motel is an eclectic local motel in easy walking distance from the course. Numerous short term rentals are also available close by.

Travel

The course will be held at Pagosa Springs Middle School located between Lewis Street and Hwy 160. Please park on Lewis St and enter from the doors facing the enclosed playground. The cafeteria will be on your right as you enter.

From East or West, take Hwy 160 to downtown Pagosa. The Middle School is in the center of town.

From South, take Hwy 84 north to Pagosa Springs, turn left onto Hwy 160. The Middle School is in the center of town.

LINK HERE

Registration

How to Register

Please click HERE to register or contact us using the contact info below.

Cancellation Policies

75% refund is offered between 30-60 days of the course. However, within 30 days of the course, no refunds are given for cancellation.

For Questions about location, logistics, and registration, contact:

Course Host: Treeline Perspectives

Phone: 707-357-1490

Email: treelineperspectives@gmail.com